

Villagers Get Chance to Aid Stricken Child

By AL LE ANCE
Palm Springs area residents were today invited to help restore the health and possibly save the life of a six-year-old Cathedral City girl stricken with a rare heart affliction.

Roselyn Anita McCoy, of 70-210 Highway 111, will undergo surgery to close a hole in her heart. But she needs help. She needs blood, and lots of it.

That's where you come in. The heart pump will change the blood in Roselyn's system at least 10 times before the operation is over, and a minimum of 10 pints of blood are needed at one time in the heart pump.

So Palm Springs area residents have been asked to help — not with money, but with blood.

THE CRIPPLED Children Services of Riverside County are helping to defray the expenses of this rare and costly operation, but they don't have the blood so urgently needed for the plucky youngster.

The Red Cross mobile blood bank, simply inform the attendant unit — the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county blood bank — will be at Desert Hospital, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday for its regular monthly visit.

WHEN YOU VISIT the blood bank, simply inform the attendant that your blood is being donated for the Crippled Children's Services of Riverside County, for Roselyn Anita McCoy.

Officials cautioned that you be sure you designate your blood for Roselyn in this manner, else it may be sent elsewhere.

Meanwhile, you can reflect on Roselyn's outlook of her impending operation at White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles.

"Roselyn's happier now than she's been for her whole life," her mother reported, "and so are we — now that she'll be well

College Wins Second Site Battle Round

Judge Neblett Upholds Demurrer Filed by Sullivan

Junior college officials yesterday won the second round in a Superior Court battle over the legality of their Palm Desert junior college site.

Riverside Superior Court Judge John Neblett yesterday sustained a demurrer aimed at quashing hotelman Hank Gogerty's legal attack against the Odell Ranch site chosen for the new College of the Desert.

THE DEMURRER, filed by County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, sought rejection of Gogerty's complaint on grounds that it was an inadequate lawsuit and failed to show sufficient cause for court action.

Judge Neblett sustained the demurrer, giving Gogerty and his attorney, James Cantillon, of Beverly Hills, 10 days in which to file an amended complaint.

IF CANTILLON files a new complaint, it will be the third in Gogerty's campaign to halt acquisition of the college site which, he contends, menaces the future of his Rancho Mirage airport and constitutes a hazard to the welfare of future college students.

The original complaint was dropped and an amended complaint filed after Sullivan submitted a request for a Superior Court demurrer on the initial suit. That was the first round.

YESTERDAY'S COURT action, which involved about 90 minutes of argument between Sullivan and Cantillon, was directed at the amended complaint.

Cantillon challenged the legality of the college site acquisition on grounds that, in part, alleged the junior college district board of trustees failed to comply with portions of the California Education Code requiring the site approval of the county planning commission and state department of education.

The complaint also charged that the college site faced a serious potential hazard because of its location in relation to airport runways.

Sullivan responded with allegations that the college board had complied with all articles of law governing the acquisition of school sites.

In Superior Court

College Bonds Vote Challenged

Junior college trustees girded for court battle on a "second front" today in response to a Superior Court complaint demanding a recount of college bond election ballots.

The complaint was filed in Indio Superior Court Thursday by Beverly Hills attorney James Cantillon, who attacked bond election results on grounds that 46 ballots were "erroneously rejected."

CANTILLON SAID he believes the outcome of the bond election which approved $3,500,000 worth of school building bonds, would be reversed if only 14 of the rejected ballots could be counted as valid "no" votes.

College officials were informed of this new court action yesterday as Cantillon and County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan squared off in Riverside Superior Court over a demurrer aimed at quashing hotelman Hank Gogerty's complaint against the Palm Desert college site.

CANTILLON REPRESENTED Gogerty in this action, but the Beverly Hills attorney said that Gogerty has "absolutely no connection" with the suit demanding a ballot recount.

The recount complaint identified the plaintiff as Donna Murray, who Cantillon said, lives in Indio.

JOHN J. COLLIER

DHS Board To Meet With Top Consultant

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—John J. Collier, Los Angeles, district representative of the National Recreation Association, will discuss long range plans for a recreation program for this area at a meeting at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in the new Adult Recreation Center in Community Park.

He will spend the day surveying Desert Hot Springs' two parks and facilities for recreation, and will submit his recommendations for future planning.

Plans also will be discussed for use of existing facilities, including the shuffleboard and horseshoe courts and a card room at Community Park.

Arranging the meeting is the Desert Hot Springs Recreation and Park District. Members of the board are Herb Ecclestone, chairman; Marguerite Burmesch, Charles E. Edmonds, John W. Kean and Herbert A. Seales.

Benton Renamed AVCC President

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Sam Benton was renamed president of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation at the election held by the board of directors here last night.

Other officers named were Aaron Eaton, vice president; John Mack, treasurer; A. B. Scott, secretary, and Mrs. Rose Bertram, chairman of the board.

CV Courts Consolidation Has Opposition

Letters Directed To Supervisors From Area Groups

Concerted opposition to proposed consolidation of Coachella Valley Justice Courts will confront members of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors at their Monday meeting.

Letters from various valley organizations, announcing opposition to the plan, head a list of 21 items of interest to desert area residents, scheduled for board consideration Monday.

Desert area items posted on the board's agenda: Receipt of bids on the sale of a portion of Thermal Airport, recommendations of the County Planning Commission in Case No. 106, to change a zone of certain property in Palm Desert.

Recommendation to release bonds on La Quinta Golf Estates Unit One; approval of maps for Palm Springs Panorama, No. 1; recommendation on request of the Coachella Valley Farmers' Association for opening a portion of Van Buren Street.

PLANNING COMMISSION recommendations to: Approve record of survey map for Clarence E. Black, North Palm Springs.

Acquire surplus lands near Cabazone and Desert Hot Springs for park purposes.

Conditionally approve acceptance of a road between 38th and 40th Avenues, in Cathedral City-Palm Desert District.

Hold a hearing and amend zoning ordinance relating to cattle feeding yards.

PLANNING COMMISSION report of approval of a variance to Golconda Development Co. to reduce lot area and setback in Cathedral City-Palm Desert district; request of Supervisors George Berkeley to use his private car on county business.

Execution of service agreements with participants in Riverside County Fair; request for refund of tax bonds on Eldorado Golf Club Estates, Units 4, 5 and 6; request of Desert Hot Springs County Fire Protection District for appointment of one commissioner.

REPORT OF assessor on policies and procedures in assessing properties; letter from La Quinta Chamber of Commerce relating to a road in that area; petition of property owners in Garnet area to name a road "Garnet Avenue."

Request of Palm Springs Unified School District for information regarding the abandonment of a road.

Her status in the complaint is that of a "member of the college district electorate," Cantillon noted. Mrs. Murray's occupation — "housewife," Cantillon said.

IT WAS A SURPRISE twist for college officials who expected such action to originate with Gogerty, who evinced his displeasure with the outcome of the election when ballots were canvassed by college board members on Oct. 20.

College President Roy McCall pointed out yesterday that Cantillon's challenge of bond issue votes was filed just under the deadline. Thursday was the last day anyone could legally challenge the election.

"We had expected something like this," Dr. McCall remarked, "but we had expected it to come a lot sooner. I don't know why they waited so long."

Cantillon told The Desert Sun that his client was contesting the election results on grounds that officials and election board members of 19 college district precincts "rejected votes that should have been counted."

A TOTAL OF 46 votes, including one absentee ballot, were marked as rejects for various reasons. The absentee vote was disqualified by college board members on the advice of County Counsel Sullivan,

SCHOOL DISTRICT FIGURES ANSWER TO CRANBERRY SCARE

Palm Springs school officials today announced that they've found a substitute for cranberries on their school menus — apple sauce.

Cranberries were stricken from the traditional, pre-Thanksgiving school cafeteria menus because of the current cranberry controversy, even though some canned cranberries in school larders were bought last year.

"We feel this is the thing to do," said School Supt. Dwight Twist. "We do not want parents or children to have the slightest worry over any food served in our noon lunch program."

Ex-Heavyweight Champion Max Baer Succumbs

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Max Baer died today after suffering an apparent heart attack while shaving in his hotel room. He died before he could be removed to the nearby Hollywood Receiving Hospital.

BAER, 50, who won the heavyweight crown from Primo Carnera on June 14, 1934, called the hotel switchboard operator shortly after 8 a. m. to say he thought he had suffered a heart attack.

The house physician, Dr. Edward Koziol, was summoned and he in turn called for an ambulance.

BAER, THE ONETIME "Livermore Lardner," who had a fling in the show world after his last fight — with Lou Nova April 4, 1942 in New York City — was seen by the television audience as recently as last Wednesday. He refereed the televised heavyweight bout between Zora Folley and Alonzo Johnson in Phoenix, Ariz.

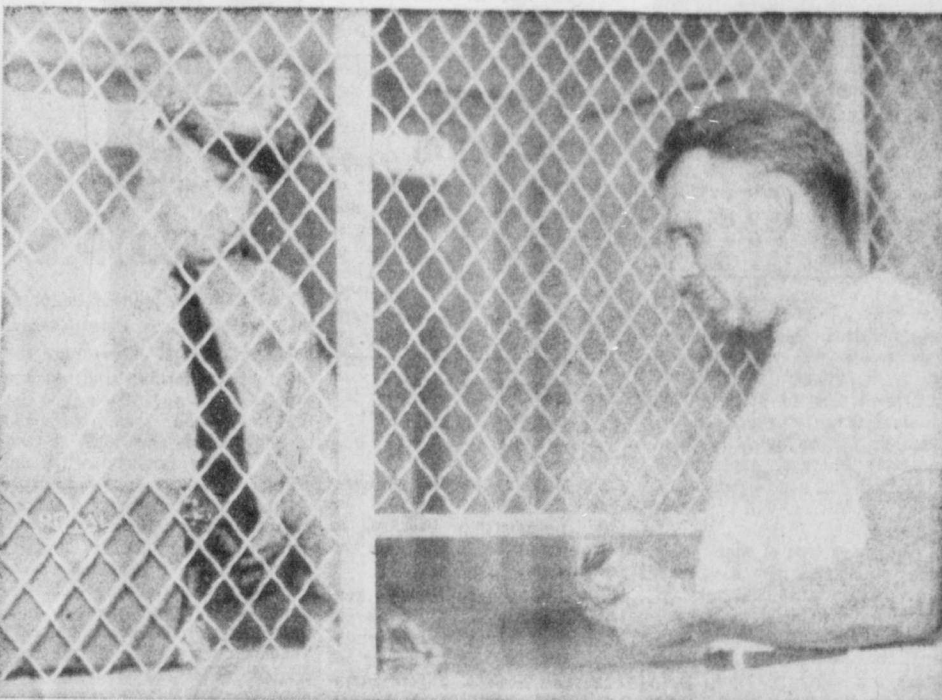

A son is in the Air Force in Florida after attending Santa Clara University near San Jose, Calif. Though powerfully built as was his father, he turned his sports interest to golf.

BAER'S BROTHER, Buddy, also was a ranking heavyweight fighter at one time, but in recent years has been active in movie and television acting roles. Baer was born Feb. 11, 1909, in Omaha Neb. He was of Jewish-German-Scottish origin.

City Arrests Ed Groves, Closes Up 'Pink Palace'

ED GROVES, OWNER of the Pink Palace, pays $105 bail—before being released from custody last night—to Officer Gail Eldridge, who booked him for violation of the city license law. Groves to date is fighting a lone battle against the city's license law. His attorney said he would file for an injunction against the city Monday in the District Court of Appeals. (Desert Sun Photo).

Groves Tells Intent to Carry Fight

Businessman Says He'll Seek New Injunction Monday

Determined to carry on a "lone" fight against the City of Palm Springs, Ed Groves, owner of the Pink Palace, was taken into custody at 5 p.m. last night on charges of failing to pay his business license fee.

Warrants for Groves arrest and an order to close the Pink Palace Ice Cream parlor until the fee is paid, were issued by Judicial District Judge Eugene Theriault yesterday afternoon.

SERVICE WAS held up on the documents until it was positively determined that Groves had no intention of paying his license fee prior to the closing of the City Hall last night.

Groves was taken into custody, and after being booked into jail, made bail which had been set by the warrant at $105.

Groves said he would seek a new injunction on Monday.

A SECOND WARRANT was issued last night on The Tahitian Hotel at 260 Chuckwalla Road, but on serving the warrant last night, police officers and City Attorney Jerry Bunker found that ownership of the place had been changed to Roland Dennis Cantley. He told the city attorney that he had no desire to go to jail and paid his $85 license fee.

Groves said that he believed he was right in fighting the business license fee.

"People are sending in money to help me fight, and are calling me on the telephone to say they are with me," he said. "A small business just can't afford to pay a $100-a-year license fee and I believe that someone has to fight this legislation."

CITY ATTORNEY Jerry Bunker said he had no quarrel with the little businessman on his stand, but pointed out that any legal action that might be taken against the city should be done after the business license fee was paid.

"It's the law that local businessmen must pay their business license fees," said Bunker, "and the city has a budget that must operate the city for the present fiscal year. The license fees are an important part of its budget. The license fee can be paid in protest, and then legal action could be taken, and the man's business will not be closed up."

DOCTORS, PRESS HOLD CONFERENCE

RIVERSIDE — The Riverside County Medical Association held a "no questions barred" press dinner at the Mission Inn here last night, as the first step in a new "open door" program of information exchange between the news media and the doctors.

Chairmaned by Dr. William Kinney, Riverside, public relations chairman of the society, the session was conducted with informal question and answer discussions.

AN EARLY HIGHLIGHT came when Dr. John Peterson, president, presented the first annual RCMA "distinguished medical reporting award" to Mrs. Beth Teters, Riverside, for coverage of society-supported polio, tuberculosis, and hospital construction programs.

Dr. Herbert O. Brayer, executive secretary, told reporters that Riverside is the nation's sixth largest county, with 257 doctors and 10 hospitals. He continued that the county is expected to jump from 170,000 to 400,000 population by 1975 — a population which will require double the present number of hospital beds, and a sharp increase in both doctors and medical technicians.

"Approximately one-fourth of applying students are admitted to medical school because of scholastic requirements — and an increasing percentage of them are eliminated by the tough courses early in their studies," he explained.

Pioneers Picnic Sunday to Honor 50-Year Villager

Palm Springs Historical Society will hold its fifth annual picnic—honoring the "Pioneers of Palm Springs" — at Tamarisk Park Sunday, starting at 1 p.m.

Theme this year will be "This I Remember," recalling George Robertson's 50 years in Palm Springs.

ROVERSON ARRIVED here in October 1909 with his mother, Nellie, and Dr. Coffman, who had purchased the McKenzie house which was the first unit of the now famous Desert Inn.

His story is also the story of Palm Springs, as he has seen it grow from a tiny, sleepy village to the world-famous resort it is today. He was active in business here for many years.

ROBERSON'S FAMILY and friends will be present to help unfold the story of his life, in relation to Palm Springs.

Contract Renewal

Tramway Battle Started Again

Special to The Desert Sun
The battle over the proposed tramway on Mt. San Jacinto was renewed yesterday, with representatives of four Southern California conservation and outdoor groups opposing a request of the Winter Park Authority for a five-year renewal of its contract.

State Parks Commission, meeting in Santa Barbara, deferred action or a decision, and asked the State Division of Beaches and Parks to investigate and submit a recommendation at the Dec. 18 meeting in Oakland.

IN ADDITION, the commission set Jan. 15 as the date for a public hearing on the matter, with the tentative location being Los Angeles.

Conservationists have opposed the tramway proposal ever since it was authorized in 1945 by the State Legislature, and have tried many times since to have the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority abolished — or blocked in its tramway efforts.

Present at the hearing yesterday were representatives of the Sierra Club, Western Outdoor Clubs, Trail Finders and Santa Monica outdoor groups.

Appearing for the Winter Park Authority was Attorney Henry Lockwood of Pasadena.

Drops Shown In Dow-Jones Spectacular Upside Move in Electronics

By WILLIAM J. DENMAN and WALTER MINTZ
Shearson, Hammill & Co.

The Dow-Jones Industrial Averages weakened a bit last week, but stayed in the same narrow range which has characterized the market in the past seven weeks. However, as has also been true in recent weeks there were a good many spectacular upside moves, particularly in the electronics group.

As a matter of fact, despite the decline in the averages, the number of strong spots in the market seem to be increasing, suggesting that when a "breakout" comes it will be on the upside.

THERE CAN BE little doubt but that tax selling is an important factor currently and will continue to be important until the end of the year. Switching for tax purposes is probably distorting the market more this year than it has in the past because of the new "substitution rules" in margin accounts.

We believe that the careful long-term investor can find a good many attractive opportunities in stocks which are currently under pressure on account of tax selling. On the other hand, traders will probably do best by taking positions in those groups which appear to be most popular at the moment and by anticipating new investment "fads." For example, we believe it is entirely possible that after some further near-term weakness the rails could become quite "fashionable."

THE MOST significant news from the business front last week was the publication of a new survey of capital expenditure plans by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company. According to McGraw-Hill, business plans to invest $37 billion in plant and equipment in 1960 compared with an estimated $33.9 billion in 1959, $33.1 billion in 1958 and $38.4 billion in 1957.

Expenditures in 1959 would have been higher had the steel strike not forced many companies to defer their plant expansion programs. It is worth noting that the strong business recovery in 1959 was accomplished with virtually no assistance from an increase in capital expenditures. However, the projected increase in capital outlays will have a major favorable impact on business conditions in 1960.

How to Be Buddy To Your Best Pal

By PEYTON CANARY

City Humane Officer William A. Mueller today asked city residents to have a heart for their dogs.

Mueller meant the aluminum heart-shaped license tags issued this year by the city.

Mueller explained that all dogs owned or harbored by local residents must have city license tags, and that unlicensed dogs may be subject to impounding.

THE CITY DOG license, issued from July 1 through the following June 30, costs two dollars each for male and spade female dogs and four dollars for unspade females. Owners of spade females must present substantiating certificate to obtain the two dollar rate.

Licenses may be obtained from officers on the humane department truck, or from the city clerk. Information may be obtained from the humane department by calling FA 5-2144 or FA 5-5520.

BOTH LICENSED AND unlicensed dogs running at large may be impounded, Mueller said. Unlicensed dogs which are unidentified may be held five days for redemption by owners.

After five days, the dogs are city property, and may be put for adoption or otherwise disposed of. Mueller emphasized that the impound fee per dog is $2 for the first offense, $5 for the second, and $10 for the third and all subsequent offenses, plus $1.50 daily for keep.

Adoption fees for dogs in the city pound are $2 for males, and $3 for females.

THE DOGS ARE given a free check by veterinarian Dr. Herman Salk prior to being offered for adoption. License, if needed, is brought up to date before impounded dogs are returned to owners or given for adoption.

Mueller explained that the dog license and restraining ordinance, in effect since 1953 — protect both dogs and property owners. Loose dogs are a major current factor in lawn damage, he said.

EARL WILSON Buttons Will 'Die' Over Again

NEW YORK — Red Buttons was just cast to play a "junkie," or narcotics addict in a movie about the Mafia by Ben Hecht titled "Brotherhood of Evil." Red'll co-star with James Mason and Louis Jourdan. In the picture, Red gets beaten to death. Red's one of the busiest actors — besides being in constant demand in cafes, he'll also do an NBC TV dramatic show starting rehearsals this week. However, there was one part he was up for that he didn't get — the role of a piano player in "Butterfield 8," starring Elizabeth Taylor. His agent phoned him. "Well, we blew that role." "Who got it?" asked Red. "Eddie Fisher," answered the agent. "Eddie Fisher!" shouted Red. "How did that happen?"

In the music payola probe, some young singers will blow the whistle on TV stars who paid them for appearances by check, then made them cash the check and give back the money. Other singers, composers, record companies and distributors made deals to pay for extensive plugging at the rate of 1 cent or more for each record sold. The pay-off to the TV star who helped make the record a hit would be, in the case of a half-million song, $5,000.

Ava Gardner's contract for "The Fair Bride" movie provides that she doesn't have to give newspaper interviews. . . Haya Harareet, the Israeli beauty in "Ben-Hur," talking at Luchow's about the picture (which runs 3 hrs. 33 minutes plus an intermission) said "You have to buy a season ticket to see it."

Milton Gross' witty book "Eighteen Holes in My Head," says most women golfers "think that a tee is something to drink. . . on the green they primp and they pose. . . when they are egged on from the rear by impatient and frustrated males, they assume airs of hurt innocence." He quotes Jack Benny: "Give me my golf clubs, the fresh air and a beautiful partner, and you can keep my golf clubs and the fresh air."

BOBBY RAMOS, perennial Village entertainment light, opened a new engagement in Palm Springs' new Riviera Hotel last night where he is featured — along with the Art and Dotty Todd Trio — in the Lido Room. Entertainment begins at 7 p. m. (Desert Sun Photo)

RAMOS, RIVIERA GREAT TOGETHER

Bobby Ramos, the Latin band-leader with the bent for communication with his audiences, opened a new, indefinite engagement in the plush Lido Room of the Riviera Hotel here last night and straightway fell into his usual pattern.

The net result of it all was a most entertaining display of musical and forensic talent . . . Ramos is co-billed with the recording trio of Art and Dotty Todd with the resulting contrast and change of pace providing more than one facet of the musical spectrum for dancers and diners.

Ramos goes a giant step further than most entertainers in the Village in that he does establish that communication with his patrons in such a warm and convincing manner as to make any listener a continuous fan.

The book Ramos plays in his Riviera stand is a well-blended group of popular and obscure Latin melodies plus the best of time-tested standards. In one set last night, he delivered "Quiet Village," "Fascination," "Non Dimenticar," "Marie Elena" and "The Lady Is a Tramp" — then left the stand with the dancers demanding more.

 More is what they'll get — but they'll have to keep going back to the Riviera to get it. — G.L.

The pink glow of El Mirador will be heightened tonight... when it will be the scene of the first annual Pink Carnation Ball... a benefit for the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation at Desert Hot Springs... Women of the Auxiliary have been busy since last summer... making the thousands of pink carnations that will decorate El Mirador Room making it look like Springtime... Palm Springs will dance tonight... so that the crippled children at Angel View may walk again... With the delightful Mary Costa as star of the ball... this will be another gala night at El Mirador...

The Governor has been noted all over the Village this week... popping in and out of conferences and Mrs. Brown was in the tournament play at Thunderbird... but it was a party Thursday night... when they dined at the Racquet Club... celebrating the birthday of the First Lady of California...

It was late in the evening... when the party arrived to fill the seats at the waiting table... set up in the Garden Room... and decorated with red and white carnation centerpieces...

Champagne preceded the dinner... which wound up with two birthday cakes... one ordered by the hosts Bonnie and Hank Ridder... and one ordered by the Nat Dumonts... at whose home the Browns are staying...

Bernice Brown's birthday gift was a handsome pearl bracelet from Jolie Gabor's little jewel box of a shop on the Village Green... An odd coincidence happened about that... Jolie and her husband Edmund de Szigethy just happened to drop into the Racquet Club for an after dinner drink... and found that the bracelet had not been delivered as they thought... so they went after it... and delivered it personally... along with a bottle of champagne in apology...

Jolie always does things with an air (hers is the only shop in Palm Springs that serves champagne to milady while she shops for jewels). In addition to the Browns, the Ridders, the Dumonts and their guest Anne Miller... the newly arrived Phil Regans were at the dinner... along with their houseguests the David McDonalds... The Harry Hills brought the number at the table to 13...

Former Smoke Tree resident Mrs. Halford Watson... who spent the summer in San Clemente... has leased a house at 221 Burton Way for the winter months...

Her friend Mrs. John Kelley of St. Petersburg, Florida (her daughter is married to Mrs. Watson's son) has purchased the former Geraldine Fredericksen home at 925 Avenida Palmas... and will have the Campbell Watsons here from Washington D. C. as Thanksgiving houseguests...

Ethel Strebe has invitations out for cocktails for the pre-opening of her Hideaway... at Deep Well Ranch... on Tuesday evening... The popular Ethel is taking over operation of the Deep Well diningroom and cocktail lounge...

Yesterday was the busiest day in a week that has been far from placid... with Winsome Courtney's Fur Fashion show at Thunderbird at noon... breaking the day in half (luncheon at Thunderbird always does this)...

Dashed back to town and off to the Plaza to be a judge at the High School's Home Coming Float parade...

The evening started off with cocktails at the Hammonds... followed by dinner at the Desert Inn... where Florence and Harold Murphy were entertaining a table for 28 as Santos opened the beautiful Fountain Room... and finally by the Riviera where Bobby Ramos was opening...

But... please... I'll have to tell you about that in Tuesday's column... And... a Happy Weekend to you!

Enchantment Themes Fashion Show

"An Adventure to Isles of Enchantment" is the theme for the WAIF fashion show luncheon at El Mirador, next Saturday, November 28. The unique adventure will be one made possible by the stunning designs of noted couturiere Peggy Hunt, who has chosen such exotic names as "Samoa", and "South Sea" to designate her new line of resort attire.

Even the lining of the full length coat which completes the "South Sea" sheath dress of painted linen, with applique subtly placed on bodice and skirt, carries the fascinating name of "salmon irresistible".

The benefit fashion show is an annual project of the Palm Springs chapter of WAIF, which is headed by president Mrs. Glen Austin. Mrs. William Malouf is chairman of the luncheon with her committee members including the Mesdames George Gannon, Walter Brunmark, Kenneth Kirk, S. P. Manasse and John Costello.

Reservations for the outstanding event which is being presented by the new Palm Springs Saks

Fifth Avenue store have been pouring into reservation chairman Mrs. George Gannon.

At Mrs. Austin's table will be Miss Jane Russell (Mrs. Robert Waterfield) president of the national WAIF organization; Mrs. Edith Lynch also an executive of WAIF; Mrs. Ludlow Flower Jr., Mrs. C. S. Irvine, Mrs. Robert Lippert, Mrs. Lionel Steinberg, Mrs. August Kettman, and Mrs. Lawrence Israel, among others.

Mrs. Joseph Froggatt and Mrs. S. P. Manasse will head a no-host table which will include the Mesdames Ben Gale, Dolph Obergef, James Wilson, Jerry Wormser Lee Doud, Howard Morris, Earle Henderson, George Dulany Jr., Bernard Bollman, Ken Evans, Adolph Bremer, B. J. Sanchez, Harry Roth, Fred Klemp, Victor Hugo-Vidal, Harold Wright, John Curci, Frank Godchaux and Frank Hoy.

Guest of Mrs. Harold Johnson will be the Mesdames Glenn Watson, Don House and John Knapp. Mrs. Russell Garner and her daughter Pepe, Carol Malouf, Mrs. Don Bleitx, Mrs. Vivian Davies, Mrs. Edwin Fallgren, Mrs. Randolph Christie, and Mrs. George Irvin will be among the guests of Mrs. William Malouf.

Not to be outdone by the ladies, a group of men have formed a special "Wolf" table at which no ladies will be allowed — for whistling is always the prerogative of such tables.

Included at the table will be among others, the Messrs. Walter Brunmark, Jack Hariman, William Malouf, Larry Cooper, George Gannon, Don McDermott, Norman Waters, Glenn Austin, S. P. Manasse, George Wheeler, Kenneth Kirk, Joseph Froggatt, Frank Bogert, Dick Edwards, Earl Cordrey, Larry Israel and John McClure.

Mrs. George Roberson will head a no-host table with the Mesdames George Holstein, Earl Coffman, Fred Albertson, J. E. French, Clarence Beesmyer, plus others. Mrs. Gwynne Hurrell's guests will include the Mesdames Travis Rogers, Jimmy Rogers Bernard, Turner Clack, and John Newell.

Mrs. Geraldine Fredericksen's guests will be the Mesdames Ed Robbins, Sally Bryant, Lucille King, William Marcy, Hortense Murray Prudence Coleman, Larry Cooper and Betty McGee.

According to Mrs. George Gannon, reservations chairman, good tables are still available. Mrs. Gannon may be reached at RA 5-2472.

Sandmans Showcase Opens Thanksgiving at El Paseo

Palm Springs PlayerStage will be offering a new and intriguing entertainment for children this season, when Mary McLaughlin has the premiere opening of her Sandman Showcase at El Paseo Theatre on Thanksgiving morning, November 26, at 11 a. m.

Mary McLaughlin, writer-producer, and her "Sandman" cast will present live theatre with the favorite and familiar classics enacted in a bewitching fantasy setting for children of all ages, literally whisking the audience into an enchanted hour and a half of fairy tale magic.

For their first stellar production, on Thanksgiving Day, the "Sandman Showcase" under the direction of Mrs. McLaughlin, will present the charming "Jack and the Beanstalk and the Two Crows", with the "Granny-Witch Tales being presented in puppetry as the "little show before the big show".

The director said today that she is more than pleased with the three outstanding members of her cast, lovely Giny Durant, radio personality; talented and popular Pat Anderson and versatile Lou Kuehner of Palm Desert's Leisure Loft, who is well-known for his acting-singing-dancing abilities.

These are shows that children will love to see again and again. Each show lasts one and one half hours, including refreshment intermission, when the clown bakers will be selling long dogs and pink lemonade, after being called into the audience by the Sandman's "Great Yawn".

Showtime weekly will be; Saturdays: 11 a.m. and 3:45 p.m.; Sundays: 1:30 and 4 p. m. Admission to all shows will be fifty cents, with the young in heart who are over 21, paying a quarter more.

The Sandman's search for talent among children of any age, will be an after-the-show attraction on the late Sunday matinee, from 4 to 5:50 p. m. each week. Prizes for talent search winners will be offered.

Treasure Chest Absorbs Interest of Woman's Club

The Glenn Watson home on Via Livorno was gayly decorated in a Thanksgiving motif when Mrs. Watson entertained at luncheon for the board of Palm Springs Woman's Club.

Guests included Mesdames Herbert Burns, Joseph Forkner, Irwin Wright, Roy W. Burton, Allan James, William Froude, Chauncey D. Mahannah, Howard Matthews, Robt. Backstrom, Marvin Cartwright, Ben Read, and Miss Hazel Gross and Miss Lillian Sebelius.

It was a big day for the members of the board for the last minute details of the exciting club event—the opening of the Treasure Chest, December 2nd was foremost in the minds of all.

This year the Palm Springs Woman's Club decided to give their friends in Palm Springs a new kind of Christmas bazaar, so this wonderful Gold Treasure Chest has been filled with gifts (just the right present to put away until Christmas time) and many golden keys are available to unlock the chest.

There will be delectable food sold throughout the day, with club members promising to bring food made from their most cherished recipes. Mrs. Roy W. Burton is chairman of the "Gourmet Foods." Mrs. William Froude, assisted by Mrs. Meade Hargiss, Mrs. Glenn Watson, and Miss Lillian Sebelius will serve home made doughnuts made to special order, while the buyers are looking on. Coffee and sandwiches will also be available for there will be many things to see from 11 a.m., with never a dull moment. The public is invited to enjoy the good time in the clubhouse at 314 S. Cahuilla Road.

Mrs. Irwin Wright promises the unusual in jewelry, while Mrs. L. H. Edgerton and her "White Elephant" booth will bring many surprises.

Mrs. Allan James is general chairman of the "Treasure Chest," assisted by Mesdames Howard Matthews, Bow Herbert, Joseph Fortner and Marvin Cartwright.

Carnation Ball Tomorrow Evening

Thousands of pale pink carnations will decorate El Mirador's Garden Room and main dining room tonight as the Palm Springs Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation stages its first annual Pink Carnation Ball.

The beautiful flowers, all fashioned by hand by Auxiliary members who have been hard at work since last summer, and will make a springlike setting for the first big Ball of the Palm Springs social season. Yesterday as the Ball date drew near, close to 400 reservations had been made, assuring a near-capacity attendance.

Preceding the Ball, Connie Barbeau and Larry Foy of The Dunes will entertain during the cocktail hour.

Mayor Frank Bogert will emcee the dinner show which is headlined by opera star Mary Costa. The show will also feature Dorothy Dandridge from the Chi Chi show, and Dave Burton and the Burton Boys from the Saddle and Siroin.

Added to the list of names already printed, others with reservations include: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pedersen (she's president of Desert Hot Springs Auxiliary), Messrs. and Mrs. John Williams, Daniel Newton, Maurice Kozlen, Morris Teitelbaum, Jack Morey, Jim Jackson, J. C. Slatin, Sam Komie, Maurice T. Ryan, Jack Conway, Charles Elliott, D. D. Slaton of Elmhurst, Illinois and Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gold will have the Harvey Shoemakers of Reseda, Sam Siedemans of Beverly Hills, and Irv Halls as their guests. Irene Felker will have a party of 10. John Haskell and party.

Also Rabbi and Mrs. Joseph M. Hurwitz, Dr. and Mrs. Morris Adams, Mrs. A. E. Wohlgenuth and party, Mrs. Sylvia Chaney, Mrs. Elizabeth Englander, Mrs. Paul Aust, Helen Pease, Doris Moody, Lola Hemingway, Maud McQuillan, Miss Billie Thompson, and many, many more.

Cold Turkey

There's no advantage to buying a fresh turkey and freezing it yourself. Commercially - frozen birds actually are fresher than home-frozen ones. The reason - turkeys are a seasonal crop, often raised some distance from the market.

Fresh turkeys may be eight days old before they reach your store. Frozen turkeys are put in blast freezers at 40 degrees below zero just 24 hours after killing and can't deteriorate until thawed.

Hawaiian Honeymoon Ended

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edward Sommie returned to Palm Springs the beginning of the week, following a honeymoon trip to Honolulu.

The young couple repeated their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony November 8 at Community Church, with Reverend Edwin Rogers officiating.

Tall baskets of white mums and pink gladioli and tapering white candles decorated the church altar, and pink bows were fastened to the entrance of each pew.

The bride is the former Jeanine Maxine Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Howe of 34-107 Linda Way, and he is the son of Albert Sommie of Passaic, New Jersey.

Keith and Kenneth Culver, candle lighters, preceded the wedding party down the aisle and as they lit the candles Alex Hammond sang 'Jeanine, I Dream of Lilac Time.' The song had special significance as the bride's mother had named her after it.

Walking down the aisle on the arm of her father the lovely bride was radiant in a ballerina length gown of white lace over satin. Her waist length net veil was caught up in a crown of net flowers decorated with sequins and centered with crystals and she carried a white prayer book with a single white orchid. A strand of pearls worn round her neck was a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were Martha Isaacson, maid of honor; Sally Magana, bridesmaid; Ginger and Sherry Cornet, junior bridesmaids, who chose identical ice blue satin bouffant gowns with matching blue ribbon headpieces trimmed with tiny blue veils and carried pink or white carnation bouquets.

The tiny flower girl, Kathleen Culver, was dressed in pink and carried a basket of rose petals which she scattered ahead of her down the aisle.

Ray Jensen served as best man and ushers were John Magana and Chris State.

During the ceremony Alex Hammond sang "Because" and as they knelt during prayer, sang "I Believe," accompanied by Lois Lux on the organ.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's mother, wearing a gown of beige lace over taffeta, and the groom's godmother in a gown of blue lace, received the 300 guests attending.

The four-tiered pink and white wedding cake, decorated with swans, pink slippers and sugar bells was a work of art and was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs.

Jessie Rubenack who is a cake decorator and flew down from Bellingham, Washington to make it.

The groom attended school in New Jersey and served four years with the U.S. Marine Corps.

The bride is a graduate of Watchee High School in Washington and came to Palm Springs with her parents three years ago.

Following the reception the new Mrs. Sommie donned a red wool jersey sheath over which she wore a white sweater trimmed in white fur and matching fur hat with white accessories for their trip to Honolulu.

Out-of-town guests were Albert Sommie from Passaic, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson of Teaneck, New Jersey, godparents of the groom who raised him from the age of five; Mrs. Mary Sheffert, sister of the groom from Oklahoma; and another sister Hilda Peterson from Teaneck, New Jersey; Mrs. Alita Pihlaksar of Bogota, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bergin from Yucaipa; and Mr. and Mrs. John La Forge and daughter Denise from Los Angeles.

The newlyweds are making their home in Palm Springs where he is associated with Palm Springs Airport in charge of operations and she is a dance instructor at the Arthur Murray Studio where they met.

Leftover Turkey

Leftover turkey will disappear fast when you serve it with southern curried yams.

Make marinade of 2 tablespoons of vegetable oil, 1/4 cup of lemon juice, 1 teaspoon of curry powder, 1/2 teaspoon of cayenne, 1/2 teaspoon of pepper, 1/2 teaspoon of ginger and 1 teaspoon of salt. Add 8 slices of cooked turkey, about 1/4-inch thick, and 4 medium yams, cooked, peeled and sliced, or 1 (1 pound) can of yams, drained and sliced. Chill 1 hour, turning yams and turkey occasionally. Drain and broil 4 to 5 inches from heat source, allowing about 4 to 5 minutes per side.

Mason-Saviak Vows Said

Honeymooning here in Palm Springs, where they will reside at 750 North Riverside Drive, are the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony Mason.

Mrs. Mason is the former Marie Saviak, daughter of Mrs. Ann Saviak of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, and William Saviak of Rhien, Saskatchewan, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Mason of Minneapolis and the late Thomas J. Mason.

They were married on November 7 at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church on Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles, with Rev. Joseph Puculli officiating at the double ring ceremony. It was an evening wedding by candlelight.

The bride wore a long gown of white chantilly lace, with pearls at her throat, and in her lace crown. She carried two white orchids sprayed with lilies of the valley.

Attending her were Mrs. Joseph Cracchiolo and Mrs. Roger Stash who wore cocktail gowns of pale aqua and carried pink camellia arrangements.

Harold Kipp of Burbank was best man and Peter Fradel was usher. The men in the wedding party wore white tie and tails.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Hollywood Plaza Hotel, where 75 guests gathered to wish them well. The three-tier cake, made by the bride's mother, was a fruit cake, iced in white and decorated with pink rosebuds.

The bride was educated in Winnipeg, where she attended Isaac Newton High School. She was secretary at the Montreal Trust for five years, before coming to California, where she was employed as secretary in Los Angeles in the head office of Citizens National Bank.

Mason, a graduate of University of Wisconsin Law School, did his Eats His Hat, But....?

Despite the tensions which still exist along the labor front in the United States, a certain amount of good-natured release of heat in the situation was evidenced by the recent act of Secretary of Labor Mitchell in "eating his hat" as a result of losing a bet on unemployment totals.

What with the steel strike having lasted a record 116 days and the Secretary having "lost" his bet by a very small margin, plus the fact that the hat was made of cake, the occasion was not one of either great humiliation or jubilation for the bettors.

In fact, it served principally to illustrate that had it not been for the steel strike, the nation would have reached an employment total considerably higher than that prophesied by Secretary Mitchell last April about three months before the huge walkout took place.

Since upwards of a million persons were out of employment due to the steel shutdown and Mitchell only lost his wager by 272,000 it is apparent that his forecast for employment gains from April to October would have been fulfilled with around 500,000 to spare. This indicates that the unemployment figure given Oct. 1 as 3,272,000 should not only have fallen below the 3,000,000 mark but closer to a new record for recent times at little more than 2,000,000.

Inasmuch as the Labor Secretary is not "responsible" for strikes, the sweet slices of cake chapeaux which he smilingly forwarded to the embattled union and industry leaders could not have been received and munched with too much gusto.

The Mitchell cake-eating incident is but another proof of the truth of the old adage that one cannot eat his cake and have it too, and that this applies to everyone on all sides and in the middle of labor "wars."

Or to put it in another and briefer way: Everyone loses in long drawn out labor disputes.

Big Labor's Decision

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Next year's Democratic nomination for President probably is riding on Big Labor's final decision on responsibility for the 1959 labor reform bill.

Big Labor's decision may not be unanimous. Jimmy Hoffa already has committed his team's fat treasury to oppose all Democrats who voted for the labor bill. AFL-CIO has been zig-zagging on that.

ALL OF THE Senate Democrats who aspire to the 1960 presidential nomination voted for the labor bill. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) is more clearly identified with labor legislation in 1959 than any other presidential hopeful. AFL-CIO seems unable to make up its mind about Kennedy.

United Press International reported from Washington last week a ruckus in the annual convention of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, which is the CIO element of merged Big Labor. The powerhouse opposition of the Machinists Union blocked a resolution which would have praised Kennedy and five other Democrats for their position on labor legislation this year.

KENNEDY WAS the only Democrat among the six who is counted among the presidential hopefuls. The Machinists were and are against anyone who voted for the Landrum - Griffin bill.

The automobile workers' Walter P. Reuther was among those who wanted to give Kennedy a cheer. The end result of the commotion was that the resolution was safely tucked away without an explosive floor fight over Kennedy as a friend or foe of big labor.

KENNEDY CAN count Reuther's friendly attitude as a great and valuable political asset. Reuther is smart and powerful. He knows the political ropes and how to pull them. Reuther demonstrated that in the 1956 Democratic National convention when he broke a stalemate which led directly and almost immediately to the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson.

Reuther is No. 2 man in AFL-CIO. The organization published this week a pamphlet on the record of the last session of Congress, with emphasis on labor legislation. This pamphlet gives a friendly plug to Kennedy, despite the Machinists.

THE PAMPHLET centers Big Labor's fire on what the union leaders regard as Big Labor's enemies. They are: President Eisenhower, his cabinet, his White House staff and Vice President Richard M. Nixon. They were, Big Labor says, the chief lobbyists for the Landrum - Griffin bill.

That, perhaps, is a fact. The pamphlet also notes that the favorable Landrum - Griffin vote was in part in response to an avalanche of mail from angry citizens. It was an avalanche which Big Labor could not match despite its 15,000,000 members.

THE DIVISION in the labor movement over assessment of blame for the Landrum - Griffin bill is likely to greatly reduce the influence of labor leaders at next year's Democratic national convention. They have had in the past a veto power in Democratic conventions.

They used it in 1952 on Alben W. Barkley. Barkley accused them of choosing programs and candidates to gain "greater control over the machinery and policies of the Democratic Party."

The new bite for parking
Will be painless they say
But nothing is painless
When you still have to pay.

By 'they' I refer to Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann and his parking law enforcement detail.

THE CHIEF issued a warning the other day that as of December 1 the parking detail is going to play for keeps.

No more "courtesy tickets" informing transgressors of the evil of their ways, but no summons.

The "slap on the wrist" technique will give way to December 1 to strict enforcement of the parking meter law.

Those who overpark are going to have to pay for it.

BUT, TO MAKE it easier, Chief Kettmann has devised a plan which will make it simple for violators to pay.

It is called a painless way to pay the parking meter fine but I maintain that anything which involves the payment of a fine, hurts.

As I understand it, a self-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope will be affixed to the notice of parking violation on your windshield.

THE OFFENDER then, if he is smart, will tuck a piece of folding money with G. Washington's picture on it along with the citation, and drop it into the nearest mail box.

That one buck is bail money. That ends it because if you don't appear, your bail is forfeit. But if you DON'T send in that bail money, the fine is two dollars.

SO, SINCE the PD is paying the mailing cost, all it takes to save a buck is to look for the nearest mail box.

That should be worthwhile. You can still argue, under the new system. Put up your bail money and then take it to the judge.

But if you lose, it will cost you $5. Coming to think of it, perhaps this new system is really painless.

Well, anyway, less painful.

HAVE BEEN HAVING a lot of fun this week taking in the Desert Seniors Golf Association November tournament. As a spectator only, of course. Nice to see these old goats, some a lot older than I am, so spry. Makes me feel decrepit.

But I witnessed a perfect case of frustration at Tamarisk Country Club Wednesday.

DR. L. M. ANDRUS of King City, playing in the event, took a birdie 2 on a par three hole. The next one, a par four, he bogey-bogied and came up with an 11.

While other members of his foursome were ribbing him for shooting a birdie on one hole and blowing the next he shot a birdie 2 on the next par 3 hole. And picked all the marbles.

National Aspirin Day

WASHINGTON (UPI) — New Year's Eve, as you may recall, comes Dec. 31. I don't believe anyone has yet designated Jan. 1 as national aspirin day. However, silent record week arrives with the new year, and its sponsors expect it to dedicate the period to a stereophonic quiet.

With this helpful start we open what looks like the longest year in history. In 1960 we've got 61 special months to celebrate, plus 180 weeks and no telling how many days.

NOVEMBER IS a big month next year with 14 special weeks we've got to observe. National Indigestion Week for instance follows Thanksgiving Day, which comes on Nov. 24.

In addition to old favorites like Mother's and Father's Days, we will be expected to observe Mother-In-Law Day April 24; Father-In-Law Day Oct. 16; Old Maids' Day June 4; Teen-Ager's Day March 21; Lady Day March 25; Old Lady Day April 6; and Grandmother's Day Oct. 9. Forefathers' Day is Dec. 21.

BABY WEEK begins April 30. By 1961 no doubt some appropriate period will have been set aside for the baby-sitter.

Oct. 15 is Sweetest Day. Its sponsors call this "a reminder that a thoughtful word or deed enriches life and gives it meaning; an occasion for the opening of the fall merchandising season." I say it's a sticky day, and they're stuck with it.

CONGRESS THIS year did its best to block the trend toward longer years. There are 90 weeks in 1959, and the House Judiciary Committee held this was enough. It pigeonholed every bill to set aside additional weeks, days or months in honor of somebody or something.

But private enterprise isn't letting big government get in its way. Chases' Calendar in fact invites you to name your own special occasion; just tell them when, what and why.

I hope to get in with my National Nothing and Nobody Week. With the way the calendar is crowded, I'll leave it to Chases' set the most suitable date.

Lucky Eight Unlucky

HOLLYWOOD — Ross Martin, John Vivyan's co-star on the new Mr. Lucky show, had to take a two-day hospital stretch away from the gambling series. He claimed he sprained his back on the soundstage — trying to roll a lucky eight The Hard Way!

Only Desilu had the courage to take on The Untouchables and shoot it when writer Norman Retchin came up with the idea of the series about Chicago gangsters. Even then, the Desilu bosses decided it would be better to "try it out" as a two-shot before shooting the works on the at-long-last-successful once a week series.

AND — JUST to prove that Hollywood never changes—here comes Retchin again with the idea for another series, titled Tumbleweed. And he's getting the same don't-bother-me brush-off he got from the same agents, producers, directors and actors on his unbeatable Untouchables!

Carol Channing is driving the makeup guys and gals on her Show Business special nutzzzz—and, says one of the makeup maestrai, "setting Westmore's and Max Factor's back at least 20 years!" That's because Carol insists on making with those do-it-yourself eyelashes of hers: makes 'em herself, in three layers — one layer in black, one in blue, one in brown. Claims they help give her that big, blank-eyed look.

JENNIFER WEST wore false eyelashes at an interview for a lead in a Bronco segment, at the behest of her agent, who told her to "look sexy." Warner-TV boss Bill Orr interviewed her and gave her the part—even though one of the "foamy" phonies slipped during the interview! Later an Orr aide told me: "Bill was so impressed by her nonchalance over the incident, he figured she HAD to be a good actress and hired her then and there."

Frances Faye was supposed to stay on as co-star at the Crescendo when Mort Sahl sashayed back to the Sunset Strip saloon during her regime. But Mort's manager insisted on top billing for Sahl so Frances packed her tight black T-sheets and conked out, despite pleas from owner Gene Norman that she stay on. "Officially, I'm taking a two-month sista before I work again, on doctor's orders," Frances told me, "but unofficially — well just I think, Sahl is a very funny man!" (Haw!)

TV ACTRESS Julie Bennett will wed Roger Haines, Jimmy Roosevelt's insurance partner, in February. "Omigosh," gushes Bob Hope — "now they're charging as much for paperback books, like $2.95 for that two-volume set of Carl Sandburg's 'Lincoln,' as I used to pay for a hamburger steak at the Pump Room!"

Batoneer David Rose, surrounded by every mechanical gadget under the sun from electric flycatchers to a real (albeit miniature) electric train that runs around the grounds of his home, has gone all out this time: he bought a steamboat and has it berthed in nearby Newport Harbor.

BRITISH TV director George Villiers, direct descendant of the second Duke of Buckingham, is bucking for his U.S. citizenship. He just filed for his first papers.

The things you learn from watching local TV interview shows in Los Angeles — like the young lady being interviewed by Oscar Levant on Hollywood marriages who came up with the astounding information that Artie Shaw, now married to Evelyn Keyes, pays not a cent of alimony to any of his SEVEN ex-wives (Lana Turner, Ava Gardner, Doris Dowling, Kathleen Winsor, Betty Kern, Margaret Allen and Jane Carns) — and legally, since artful Artie's attorneys managed a settlement in each instance.

ONE-TIME wrestling champ Man Mountain Dean caught the eye of Stanley Dohen while doing an interview on a Los Angeles station. Stan signed "The Man" to menace Mitzi Gaynor in "Surprise Package," now shooting in Greece.

"Package," according to co-producers Cary Grant and Dohen, is the first film ever shot atop the Temple of Athena in Rhodes, 1,000 years older than the Parthenon in Athens...

Also (in a letter from the two): "We're staying here in Rhodes in a hotel owned by Maria Callas's intended — or is he? Anyway, Aristotle Socrates Onassis, one of the world's wealthiest men, owns it. He also owns the airline in and out of Rhodes and practically everything else hereabouts. But our wealthy landlord hasn't looked in on any of the love scenes we've been shooting between Yul Brynner and Mitzi on our crazy mountaintop soundstage — as yet!"

SOME RECORD distributors, I hear, will be just as shook-up and red-faced as the Quizlings if and when the investigations of crooked disk jockeys start probing into their files. Especially those files containing prices posted for "assured plays" of certain recordings by various and assorted deejays!

Comedian Joey Adams' wife, Cindy, sent me a copy of his new book on humor with this note accompanying it: "If you have time, please read it and give it a good review; if you don't have time, forget about it, just give it a good review." Aside to Cindy: See above and remember, to all phony gimmicks, book-wise, quizbiz-wise or any other-wise, inevitably comes death without hope of resurrection!

There's a 12-year-old boy in town—a tiny "John Doe" who is paying his debt to society—and voluntarily.

This is the story as told by Officer Harry Houghton of the local PD.

Early the other morning the lad appeared at the police station and sought out Houghton.

"I should be arrested," he said.

"Why?" asked the amazed officer.

"Because I've been stealing wallets," bravely answered the youngster.

Taken back by the statement, Houghton finally gleaned the facts. The youngster had been shoplifting cheap wallets, toys and other small items from local stores and selling them. A tour of the shops listed by the lad verified his story.

Each Saturday now young John Doe is working, working for the stores he raided.

He'll alternate at the various places and most of his pay is going to make good the articles he took.

Twentynine Palms Outlasts Indians, Wins 25-13

HEATED ACTION AND HEATED words marked last night's football game between the Palm Springs Indians and the Twentynine Palms Wildcats. Don Smith, assistant Indian coach, is shown "talking" with Hal Whitaker of Santa Barbara, who was referee at last night's game. Consistently calling—or failing to call—violations of the rules, he seemed unable to cope with the handling of the players. After the conversation with Smith, Whitaker turned to a newsman said: "Just call me 'Behind the Eight-Ball Whitaker.'" Aside from the refereeing on the part of Whitaker, both teams showed much spirit and fought hard to win. In the second photo, at right, Hilton McCabe (29) cuts around a Twentynine Palms tackler, on a big gain during the fracas. The Indians lost three of their top men—Tony Gomes, Jim Garland, and Sid Sanders—when Whitaker took them out of the game and sent them to the showers for fighting.

Indians Wind Up In Fourth

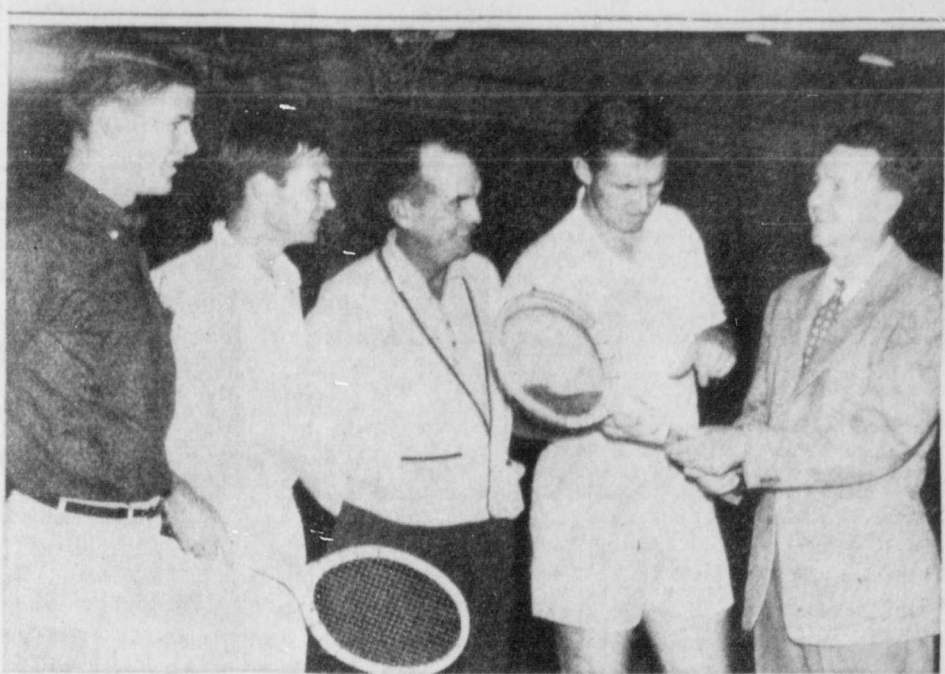

It wasn't according to script. Palm Springs High School Indians who Friday had hoped to wind up in a deadlock for second place in the first football season for the Desert Valley League, found themselves in fourth place today, leading only one team.

Twentynine Palms High, underdogs against the Tribe, came through to spoil the Palm Springs homecoming celebration with a 25 to 13 upset.

IT WAS A SHOCKER for almost 2,000 fans who settled back to watch the Indians roll up a big one after they took a 13-0 lead in the first quarter. But the Wildcats from the other side of the little San Bernardino, came roaring back. They pushed one across in the second quarter and, after recess, came back to tie it up in the third, 13 all, and boomed ahead with two in the final period to make it 25-13.

THE INDIANS went on the scoreboard early. Bill Smith snared a pitch from Tony Gomez to go ten yards for the first one. The TD culminated a 49-yard trip. Smith aided it mightily with a 28-yard ramble wide around right end. The PAT failed.

The thriller came after the next kickoff. Twentynine Palms drove right down to the Indian 15 where Fred Cockerham picked a fumble out of the air and went all the

Youth Tennis Foundation Visits at PSHS

Anyone for tennis? Yep, just about everyone was for tennis at Palm Springs High School this week, when the Youth Tennis Foundation of Southern California staged its informative tennis clinic.

SCORES OF tennis-minded high school students turned out for a symposium conducted on their favorite sport by some of the West Coast's most prominent tennis stars.

The clinic, staged at the school gym, was based on a 12-point foundation program primarily designed to "stimulate tennis interest" and "provide expert tennis coaching."

CLINIC LEADERS were Noel Brown, Pacific Coast doubles champion and former Canadian champion; Hugh Stewart, former National Intercollegiate Champion and Pacific Coast doubles champion.

A practical demonstration in proper tennis strokes was offered to high school students this morning by Brown and young Palm Springs tennis star Frank Ripley. A breakfast stop is planned and a luncheon event later.

$50,000 FOR ACE IN DESERT CLASSIC

Something new has been added to the first annual $100,000 added Desert Classic golf tournament to be played here February 3 through 7. Mill Hicks, general chairman of the event, said today.

A cash prize of $50,000 will be given any golfer sinking a hole-in-one during the tournament.

BUT THE PROMOTORS of the $100,000 classic are hedging slightly. They have taken out an insurance policy with Lloyd's of London that it won't happen in this, the world's richest golf tournament.

NFL Title May Be Decided United Press International The San Francisco Forty-Niners and Baltimore Colts may settle the National Football League's Western Division race Sunday at Baltimore before a sellout crowd of 37,557. The Colts, who have lost only two of their last 12 home games, are favored by seven points.

San Francisco 6-2 leads second-place Baltimore 5-3 by a game. If the Forty-Niners win, they will lead the Colts by two games with three to play and will be well on their way to their first division title.

Tab Mexico Soccerites LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Mexican National Soccer Team today was a favorite to win the North American zone eliminations tomorrow from the U.S. Olympic Soccer team and to go on to the hemisphere eliminations for the 1960 Rome Games.

The tournament, a 90-hole affair, will be played on four courses in the Palm Springs area, Tamarisk, Thunderbird, Indian Wells and Bermuda Dunes.

The 120 pros invited, each teamed with three amateurs, will play 18 each day on each of the four courses. On the last day, the pros only will complete the 90-hole event at Thunderbird.

IN THE EVENT that more than one pro golfer sinks a hole in one, the prize will be split. There are four three par holes on all of the participating courses.

Hicks is confident that all of the 120 pros invited to play in this, the richest golf tournament of all, will accept.

Canadian Stan Leonard Wins Melbourne Golf Title

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI)—Little Stan Leonard of Canada outlasted a two-hour wait in a bar and Australia's Peter Thomson to win a sudden-death battle on an extra hole playoff and capture the International golf championship at the Royal Melbourne Golf Club.

Leonard and Thomson, four-times British Open king, tied at 275 after four rounds of play in which Australia captured the coveted Canada Cup with a two-man team total of 563-10 shots ahead of the United States with Canada third another stroke away.

ONE SHOT BACK as play started this blazing hot day before a gallery of more than 12,000, Leonard fired 35-35-70 and then sat almost hopelessly receiving liquid solace in the clubhouse bar as Thomson seemed en route for his fourth straight sub-par round. But Thomson bogeyed the 13th and 16th holes for a one over par 34-37-71 to set up the playoff.

"I don't see how I can hit the ball," Leonard said with a shaky grin as he started out. But on the first hole he rifled a drive down the middle and put his second onto the green while Thomson's second was over the green. Stan putted up within six inches and stood blinking by as Thomson chipped back 10 feet past the pin and failed to sink it coming back.

LEONARD TAPPED in the six-inch for the victory.

Third place in the individual international championships went to America's Sammy Snead with a closing 34-36-70 which put him at 181-six shots behind the leaders, Cary Middlecoff of the U. S. finished with a 70 for a 292 total.

The 45-year-old Leonard, who won the International in 1954, scored his second victory in this event "hardly without knowing what was going on after that two-hour wait." He said he found it "all very satisfying."

'Goering' To Be TV Show Sunday

Life of Hitler's Top Aide to Be Given in Detail

"Goering," the story of Adolf Hitler's second-in-command, who started out as Hitler's showpiece and wound up as his scapegoat, will be presented on "The Twentieth Century" Sunday, Nov. 22 (6:30-7 p.m., pst) on the CBS Television Network.

CBS News Correspondent Walter Cronkite narrates the program, which features an exclusive interview with Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, now Viscount Kilmuir, Lord High Chancellor of England, who prosecuted Goering at the Nuremberg war crimes trials.

SAYS HE ON "The Twentieth Century": "It's almost exactly 13 years ago since I went to the lecture to cross-examine Herman Goering. I think it could be fair to say that he had a quick mind, an excellent memory and a complete mastery of the political approach to mass public opinion in Germany — courage, and the power of getting himself liked by the vast majority of people that he met. When these qualities are coupled with complete ruthlessness, vanity and greed, you get a figure that cannot be laughed off."

Called by some a buffoon, a buccaneer, a modern Nero, and referred to by others as a likeable bully and a great diplomat, Goering called himself "Iron Hermann."

HE WAS AN ace in World War I and succeeded Baron von Richthofen as commander of the famous Flying Circus in 1918. He turned to stunt flying in Scandinavia before joining Hitler as head of the Nazi storm troops in the early 1920's. Wounded in Hitler's abortive 1923 strike for power in Munich, Goering went into exile and was treated in Sweden for mental illness and drug addiction. He returned to Germany in 1933 and aided Hitler in making the Nazi party the biggest, and finally the only, political organization in Germany.

Among his titles were Field Marshal of Germany, General of the SS, Supreme Leader of the SA, President of Reichstag, Minister of the Interior for Prussia, Chief of the Prussian Police. His most important assignment was as Commander in Chief of the Luftwaffe, the German air force.

GOERING WAS captured by American troops in May, 1945, and stood trial with other Nazi leaders at Nuremberg. He was sentenced to hang, but committed suicide by poison in his cell two hours before the hour of execution. The last Nazi incinerator at the concentration camp of Dachau was used to cremate his body.

"Goering" was written for "The Twentieth Century" by Lael Wertheimer. The original music score was composed by Werner Janssen.

USC-UCLA Tilt To Be Televised

Still Going Strong

DEKALB, Miss. (U) — A water-powered grist mill more than 100 years old still turns out about 60 bags of corn meal a day from its 4,500 and 1,400-pound grinding stones near here.

The mill is operated by George W. Sciples, 59, at the hamlet of Sciples Mill, established by Sciples' great-grandfather. Sciples says maintenance work on the mill has cost $16 in the past 56 years.

Blood Is Shed, Violence Erupts Due to Prejudice

Romance conquers an old man's prejudice against foreigners but not until blood is shed and violence erupts in "Night of Violence" during KTLV's "Man Without a Gun," Saturday, Nov. 21, 8 p.m., Channel Eleven.

Foreign born Jan Lowinski and Ellen Winslow fall deeply in love against the wishes of her father, who hates foreigners because his friend's son was killed by a foreigner. When Jan's cousin is killed, Jan in turn kills the murderer in a fair fight, but he is caught and arrested.

Editor Adam MacLean (Rex Reason) tries to help Jan but realizes they must get married since Ellen's father has forced her to sign an incriminating statement against Jan.

When Winslow learns of the marriage he tries to kill Jan but wounds his daughter instead. Adam MacLean takes advantage of the near tragedy to try to get Winslow and Jan to end their hatred and their quarreling.

BUSINESS RIVALRY LEADS TO MURDER

The rivalry between Richard Vanaman (Arthur Franz) and Fred Petrie (Alan Hewitt) for an executive promotion in a reputable investment firm involves Perry Mason (Raymond Burr) in "The Case of the Golden Fraud" on "Perry Mason" Saturday, Nov. 21 (CBS Television Network, 7:30-8:30 p.m., pst).

Vanaman, who fears his reputation will be ruined when he finds himself the victim of a blackmail scheme involving one of the firm's clients, seeks the help of Mason. When Perry investigates the associates who would benefit from Vanaman's ruin, he uncovers a strange kind of envy that leads to murder.

REGULAR MEMBERS of the cast include Barbara Hale as Della Street; William Hopper as Paul Drake; William Talman as Hamilton Burger and Ray Collins as Lt. Tragg.

Featured in the segment are June Dayton, Arthur Franz, Joyce Meadows, David Sheiner, Alex Gerry, Asa Maynor, Alan Hewitt, Patricia Huston, and Neil Hamilton.

"THE CASE OF THE Golden Fraud" is an original story by Robert C. Dennis Herbert Hirschman, the producer of the "Perry Mason" series also directed this episode.

Gale Patrick Jackson is the executive producer for Paisano Productions.

Jessel to Have Six TV Guests

Virginia O'Brien, Cobina Wright, Elaine Edwards, singer Grant Griffin, mimic Ben Fromer and Allen Drake sit in as special guest on "George Jessel's Show," Saturday, Nov. 21, 8 p.m., KOOP Channel 13.

According to the U. S. Department of Commerce people in the United States last year spent in the neighborhood of $6 billion to repair their autos, appliances and other household furnishings. To inform these people of the latest facts regarding new products and servicing information advertisers last year invested over $3 billion in daily newspaper advertising.

Court Basie Band Set For Sullivan

Carol Channing,
Shelley Berman
Are Other Guests

Musical comedy star Carol Channing, comedies Wayne & Shuster, Count Basie and his band with singer Joe Williams, and monologist Shelley Berman will headline "The Ed Sullivan Show," Sunday, Nov. 22 (CBS Television Network, 8-9 p.m., pst.).

Miss Channing, who rose to prominence with her masterful portrayal of Lorelei Lee in the musical, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," has recently achieved new success with her own night club act. She is currently appearing on the West Coast in a new musical revue entitled "Show Business."

The team of Wayne & Shuster will appear in a special comedy sketch about a rock 'n' roll singer (Wayne) who is discovered by the head of a recording company (Shuster).

Other performers appearing on the program are singer Trude Adams, Comic Al Bernie, Singer Dick Roman and LaFille & Co., aerial act.

"The Ed Sullivan Show" is produced by Marlo Lewis and Ed Sullivan. John Wray is director-choreographer. Music is under the supervision of Ray Bloch.

RAMS TO MEET PHILADELPHIA EAGLES
The Los Angeles Rams, dumped unceremoniously by the Detroit Lions last Sunday to become cellar-dwellers in the Western Conference of the National Football League, meet the Philadelphia Eagles of the Eastern Division on "Professional Football," Sunday, Nov. 22, (10:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m.) on KNXT, Channel 2.

In their respective leagues, the Rams have won 2 and lost 6, while the Eagles have won 5 and dropped 3. The Eagles have won six league (and title) games over the Rams from 1946 through 1950.

Philharmonic To Present Mozart Work

Program Filmed In Venice During Bernstein's Tour

"Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic" in Venice, second in the series of hour-long concert programs, will be presented on the CBS Television Network Sunday, Nov. 22 (5-6 p.m., pst.) and will feature the second and third movements of Mozart's Piano Concerto in C Major.

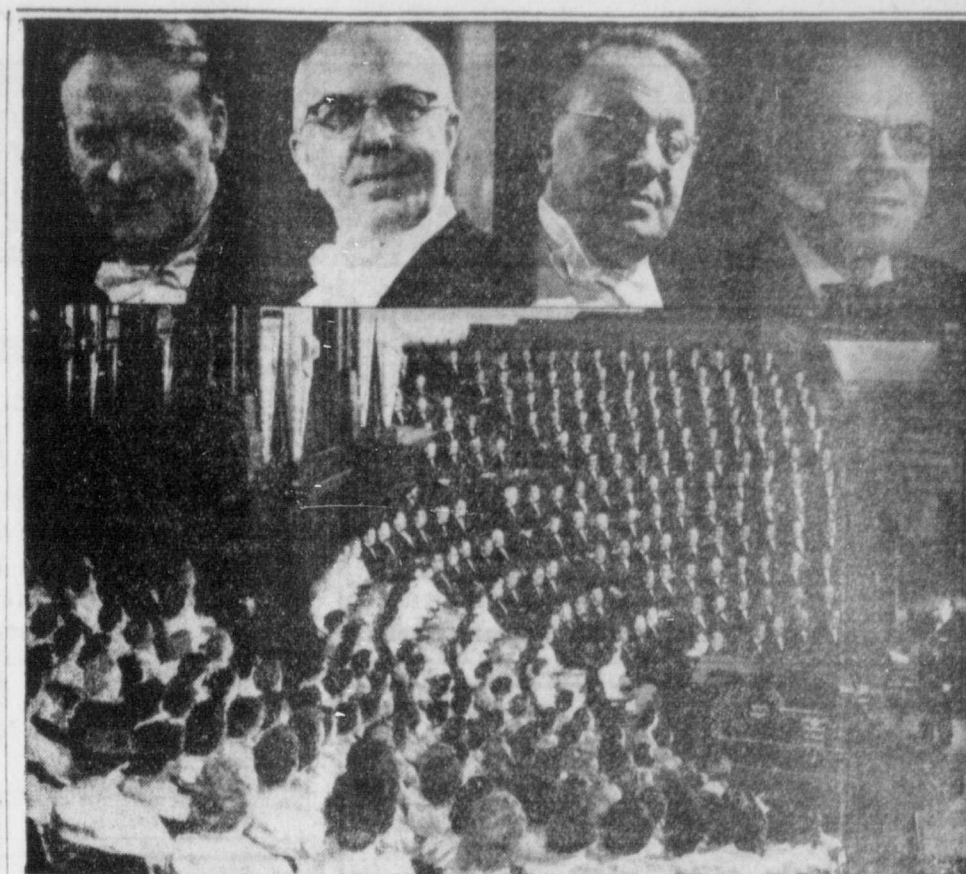

The program, produced by Robert Saudek Associates, was filmed especially for this series in the Teatro La Fenice, the magnificent 18th century opera house in Venice, Italy, during Bernstein's tour of Europe this past summer.

BERNSTEIN WILL devote the entire program to the impact on music of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and will conduct the Philharmonic from the piano in an uninterrupted performance of the two movements from Mozart's famous concerto.

The Teatro La Fenice is regarded by many persons as one of the most beautiful theaters in the world. Of modest capacity—it holds but 1,300 persons—it is exquisite in appearance, a highly ornate jewel box that faces on a square and has a gondola entrance in the rear, facing along a canal.

BERNSTEIN CHOSE this setting for the Mozart program because the opera house exemplifies the elegance and beauty of the 18th century, when it was built, and during which Mozart, a giant of the musical world, flourished.

Another feature of the Nov. 22 program will be a "Message For Americans," by Joseph N. Welch, noted Boston attorney and television personality. The setting for this filmed segment of the show will be the Widener Library at Harvard University.

THE WORLD-FAMOUS 375-voice Mormon Tabernacle Choir of Salt Lake City will present two public concerts, matinee and evening, in the Los Angeles Shrine Civic Auditorium Friday, Nov. 27. While in Los Angeles the choir will also appear on the nationally televised award show over NBC Sunday, Nov. 29, of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences where it will receive the "Grammy" award, counterpart of the movies' "Oscar," for its hit recording of "Battle Hymn of the Republic." The choir is conducted by Richard P. Condie, with Alexander Schneider and Frank W. Asper as organists, and Richard L. Evans as commentator, left to right insets above.

FIRST TOO MUCH LEFT OUT, THEN TOO MUCH THROWN IN

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Ernest Hemingway as adopted by A. E. Jones before Thursday night was "For Whom the Bell Tolls," which suffered because too much story had to be left out.

"The Killers," first of four Hemingway adaptations by A. E. Jones, suffered because too much story had to be thrown in. As a result, the 90-minute production was incredibly bad.

THE REASON I saw this is that you can't play around with his particular Hemingway short story about a man who is not the master of his fate. It's a story that is charged with fatalistic dialogue and philosophy which sends the reader's imagination going in all directions. The proper setting for the story is the imagination, not the TV stage.

Hemingway's tight little point with some shrieking, something of a minor love story, and brushes against other forces that might have altered the fate of his hunted hero, Ole Anderson. After disposing of the original story in about 20 minutes, though, you can imagine Hemingway's problem about 70 minutes left over.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST in this production was the dramatic acting debut of Ingemar Johansson, the heavyweight champion of the world. Portraying Ole Anderson, Ingo handled his lines with the proper feeling, but his movements were unnatural and indicated that director Tom Donovan had over-coached him.

Dane Clark and Robert Middleton acted as the killers. Dressed in black, they brandished sawed-off shotguns and menacing George Raft-type dialogue whether they went Ray Walston, as George, the owner of the diner turned in the most convincing of the night. Dean Stockwell as an eager-beaver Nick Adams was burdened with some shallow, neo-heroic dialogues.

THE MUSICAL background for the production sounded as if it had been left over from a program that might have been called, "A Cavalcade of Quiz Shows." It was too loud, too insensitive even for the broad action it had to accompany.

Id say the only one who benefited from this show was Johansson. Having displayed considerable charm as a singer on a Dinah Shore show, he now seems to have some natural ability as an actor.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Betty Garrett and Dick Van Dyke join the cast of Art Carney's Dec. 4 NBC-TV comedy special, "Very Important People." Tony Pastor, the former big band leader of the 1930's appears as part of a new musical act with his two sons on the CBS-TV Ed Sullivan Show Sunday, Nov. 29.

Peggy Cass and Cliff "Charley Weaver" Arquette will accompany Jack Paar when Paar's NBC-TV show originates from Hollywood during the first two weeks of December.

Yaoita achieved the only defeat on Perez's record at Tokyo last January when he outpointed Perez in a non-title, 10-rounder. The special KTTV delayed telecast for Southern California sports fans of the thrilling 13-round knockout of the Japanese challenger Sadao Yaoita will be seen in its entirety on KTTV, Sunday, Nov. 22, 8:45 p.m., Channel eleven.

Imogene Coca comes to "The George Gobel Show" through the mails — and special-delivery from England — to appear as George's guest on the comedy program Sunday, Nov. 22, 10:30 p.m., (pst) on the CBS Television Network.

In a comedy sketch, Imogene plays the mail-order bride of a farmer, known as Lonesome George.

ALMANAC

United Press International
Today is Saturday, Nov. 21, the 325th day of the year, with 40 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening star is Venus.

On this date in history:

In 1694, the French philosopher
Voltaire was born.

In 1877, Thomas Edison announced that he had invented a
"talking machine."

In 1918, General John Pershing and the American Expeditionary Force liberated Luxembourg in World War I.

In 1938, Germany forcibly incorporated the western border area of Czechoslovakia to the Reich.

In 1945, 200,000 auto workers went out on strike at all plants of the General Motors Corporation.

A thought for today: French philosopher Voltaire said: "Common sense is not so common."

Prepare Now for Children's Education.

Or Buy Just as a Wise Investment.

With the annual rising value of Real Estate Property, a working man or investor can't afford to pass this opportunity to buy these lovely furnished five (1 bedroom each and heated pool) apartments and let the TENANTS PAY for it FOR YOU, and in 10 short years be financially independent to retire.

Just Imagine

the monthly or annual premium of a life insurance policy that would yield $75,000 cash in only 10 short years. Such payments or premiums would be PROHIBITIVE for the average wage earner.

Distress-Sacrifice Sale

affords you opportunity to do just what we mentioned above. Commencing today you can deal direct with OWNER who is on property right now waiting your visit to inspect and buy this 3 year old property on the very flexible terms of:

'Soul, Body' Topic for Scientists

Spiritual Nature Of Man to Guide Sunday Lesson

Congregations in Christian Science churches will hear a Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" Sunday, when selections read from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook will testify to the true spiritual nature of man as the manifestation of Soul, God.

In the Scriptural account of the healing of Naaman of leprosy, when Elisha sent word to him to wash seven times in the River Jordan, he was angry at first and refused to comply.

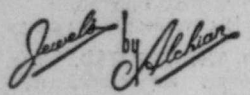

HOWEVER, "His servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My Father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?" (II Kings 5:13).

In a correlative passage relating to Naaman's healing, Mary Baker Eddy states in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures":

"RIGHTLY UNDERSTOOD, instead of possessing a sentient material form, man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man, — through Mind, not matter" (p. 280).

Holiday Topic At Community

Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church, will preach Sunday at the 9:30 and 11 a. m. worship services on "In Everything Give Thanks."

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN

First Unitarian Minister to Speak Sunday

Palm Springs Unitarians and other interested persons will have an opportunity to hear Stephen H. Fritchman, minister of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, on Monday evening, Nov. 23.

He is being presented by the Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship, a newly organized study and discussion group. The place of the Monday evening meeting will be the community room of the Security First National Bank at Ramon Road and Indian Avenue. Time is 8 p. m.

"Where do the Unitarians go from here?" will be Mr. Fritchman's topic for his informal address. Following his talk, there will be a question-and-answer period with time for open discussion. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Fritchman came to the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles with an impressive background of experience behind him.

Dr. Irma Glen To Give Topic

Thanksgiving services will be conducted this Sunday by Dr. Irma Glen for the Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs at the Plaza Theatre. Her subject will be "The Great Law of Abundance."

Thanksgiving To Be Sermon

Sunday School For All Ages Set at 9:30 a. m.

CATHEDRAL CITY—The Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of the Cathedral City Community Church, will preach Sunday morning on the topic "Thanksgiving is Thanksgiving."

Sermon text is Ephesians 2:10: For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before-hand, that we should walk in them.

SUNDAY SCHOOL services for ages three through adults will be conducted at 9:30 a. m. A nursery will be provided for the 11 a. m. worship service.

The Senior High Youth Fellowship will meet with the Palm Desert Community Church youth fellowship. The adult discussion group will meet at 7:30 in the pastor's home.

Tuesday, the morning and afternoon Circle groups will meet in the home of Mrs. Harvey Gerhardt, 37-297 Cathedral Canyon Drive.

New Church Sets Initial Rite Sunday

Rev. Dan Claassen To Conduct First 1000 Palms Service

THOUSAND PALMS — The Thousand Palms Community Church will hold its first services as an organized congregation at 11 a. m., Sunday, with the Rev. Dan Claassen, minister.

Rev. Claassen will speak on "Imitations or Imitators."

THE COMMUNITY Church congregation was organized this past week, after functioning since October. The group was formed by members of the Sunday School of the Community Chapel, which has conducted classes for approximately 12 years, in association with the American Sunday School Union.

The organizational meeting, called by Sunday School Supt. Mrs. Charles Wallace, named the Rev. Claassen, minister; Miss Eva Finson, chairman; Mrs. Harry Lennie, secretary; Mrs. J. A. Welcome, treasurer; and Mrs. Leslie Thomas, publicity chairman.

Catholic Priesthood To Be Tuesday Topic

Questions concerning priests will be discussed by Father Raymond Beaudry, assistant pastor of St. Theresa's, in his series of lectures on the Catholic doctrine, at 8 p. m., Tuesday, in St. Theresa's auditorium.

"We read in Hebrews V, 1, that a priest is 'taken from among men and appointed for men in the things pertaining to God,' and also same chapter, verse 4: 'No man takes the honor to himself; he takes it who is called by God, as Aaron was,'" Father Beaudry said.

"THAT IS WHY in the Catholic Church young men are trained in seminaries for years before they are ordained and appointed by a bishop, who has been himself appointed by the Pope," he continued.

Among things to be discussed are the priest's training, marriage policy, the origin of the word "Father," and their traditional attire.

IN THE FRIDAY lecture, Father Beaudry will explain the Catholic doctrine about marriage, especially in regard to the indissolubility of the marriage bond,
